

Annecto Legal Assistance provides fast, effective legal advice without the usual associated legal costs.

Every business owner needs reassurance and legal support. This peace of mind needn't come at a high price.

Find the right legal advice that provides a solution quickly without the pressure of expensive legal bills.

Annecto Legal Assistance can help in scenarios such as:

- How can I protect my brand?
- I think I need to change my retention title clause – what do I do?
- Should I give a personal guarantee on a business loan or are there any other options?
- I have an overseas debtor who won't pay, what should I do?
- What should I think about and include in my trading terms?
- Can I bring a claim against my current bank? If so what are my options?
- I have a dispute with a third party and want to sue them... do I have grounds for a claim?
- How do I pursue a claim without large costs or risks?

What this means for you

- One phone number and email available to use 24/7/365 days a year
- A legal assistance service providing access to award winning legal professionals
- Advice on all areas of law affecting you and your business
- No limit on number of times the service can be used *
- Free analysis of potential claims to be pursued or defended
- Funding to pursue and defend legal disputes
- You can receive help on matters that may not be covered by your legal expenses insurance policy
- Where you have Legal Expenses Insurance we will liaise directly with your insurers

* Subject to fair use

0330 66 00 159
annectolegal@stephensons.co.uk